Liturgy of the Word
Entrance Rite

Welcome to Trinity Church. At the sound of the bell, please stand (if you are able) for the processional hymn (from the blue hymnal). The order of the liturgy is found in the Book of Common Prayer (red book). Music with an "S" before numbers indicates service music and is found in the front portion of the hymnal. All are welcome to come to the altar for communion. If you are unable to come to the altar, notify an usher to have you served in the pew. The organ prelude marks the beginning of worship and is a veil drawn between the cares of the week ushering us into the presence of The Almighty God.

Collect of the Day

O God, you have taught us to keep all your commandments by loving you and our neighbor: Grant us the grace of your Holy Spirit, that we may be devoted to you with our whole heart, and united to one another with pure affection; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Readings A period of silence will follow each reading.

First reading

Deuteronomy 10: 17-21

All sit.

For the Lord your God is God of gods and Lord of Lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who is not partial and takes no bribe, who executes justice for the orphan and the widow, and who loves the strangers, providing them food and clothing. You shall also love the stranger, for you were strangers in the land of Egypt. You shall fear the Lord your God; him alone you shall worship; to him you shall hold fast, and by his name you shall swear. He is your praise; he is your God, who has done for you these great and awesome things that your own eyes have seen.

Psalm

Second Reading

Hebrews 11:8-16

By faith Abraham obeyed when he was called to set out for a place that he was to receive as an inheritance; and he set out, not knowing where he was going. By faith he stayed for a time in the land he had been promised, as in a foreign land, living in tents, as did Isaac and Jacob, who were heirs with him of the same promise. For he looked forward to the city that has foundations, whose architect and builder is God. By faith he received power of procreation, even though he was too old—and Sarah herself was barren—because he considered him faithful who had promised. Therefore from one person, and this one as good as dead, descendants were born, “as many as the stars of heaven and as the innumerable grains of sand by the seashore.” All of these died in faith without having received the promises, but from a distance they saw and greeted them. They confessed that they were strangers and foreigners on the earth, for people who speak in this way make it clear that they are seeking a homeland. If they had been thinking of the land that they had left behind, they would have had opportunity to return. But as it is, they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; indeed, he has prepared a city for them.

Holy Gospel

Matthew 5:43-48

All stand.

[Jesus said,] “You have heard that it was said, ‘You shall love your neighbor and hate your enemy.’ But I say to you, Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, so that you may be children of your Father in heaven; for he makes his sun rise on the evil and on the good, and sends rain on the righteous and on the unrighteous. For if you love those who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the tax collectors do the same? And if you greet only your brothers and sisters, what more are you doing than others? Do not even the Gentiles do the same? Be perfect, therefore, as your heavenly Father is perfect.”

Today, we offer prayers of healing, accompanied by the biblical and traditional laying-on-of-hands and anointing with oil, at both services. If you wish to have healing prayers for yourself or on behalf of someone you love – make your way to the healing station after you have received Holy Communion. While kneeling at the prayer desk, the intercessor will ask you the name for whom you wish prayer. You may do so; if not, the intercessor will simply pray a general prayer for healing (you may also request a blessing for yourself at this time.) He or she will offer these prayers, lay hands upon your head and anoint your forehead with oil. This is done in a quiet way, which respects the confidentiality of your request.
