MISSION PHILADELPHIA

Twelve Years of Building Bridges and Reaching Out to Those Who Need Help

Dear

Each year as part of its mission, members of Trinity Youth Group (TYG) in Solebury have made the commitment to work in Philadelphia's highest need areas in partnership with Philadelphia Urban Tree Connection to improve the quality of the resident's lives. The desire to increase the TYG's efforts toward this mission led to the creation of Lobsterfest as a fundraising vehicle in 1995 and Mission Philadelphia in 1996. In 2008, Lobsterfest continues to be a major fundraising event for TYG's outreach efforts.

During the past twelve years many lives have been touched in a profound way both at Trinity and in the neighborhoods they have impacted. TYG's Mission Philadelphia forges relationships within these areas of need by allowing people to work together, and break down racial and demographic barriers. This year, from June 22nd to June 29th, Trinity Youth Group has committed to at least one new project and the revitalization of existing properties initiated by TYG over the years. All of these green spaces are located in the West Philadelphia corridor.

While Trinity Youth Group is firmly committed to the physical effort needed to ensure a successful 2008 Mission Philadelphia, we cannot implement our program without the support of sponsors and patrons from our local business community for our 13th annual Lobsterfest on Saturday, June 7th, on our church campus, from 4 to 8pm. We're asking you to help not only TYG, but also the residents of the Philadelphia neighborhoods where Mission Philadelphia's projects will take place and who will benefit from their successful completion. 100% of your corporate donation will fund our Mission Philadelphia outreach efforts and will be an effective form of advertising within our local community. Please see the other side of this letter for the sponsorship details and contribution form.

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions: email sponsor@trinitysolebury.org or call 215-297-5135.

We thank you for your time and look forward to your participation.

Sincerely,

Trinity Youth Group
