FRIENDS OF MUSIC

Concert Series

*Organ built by Martin Pasi & Associates, Opus 17
2 manuals, 29 stops, 33 ranks*

Churches have historically embraced artistic expression from Medieval Cathedrals and New England Meetinghouses to places like St. Martin's in the Field and St. John's Cathedral, New York. Trinity Episcopal Church of Solebury, Pennsylvania has chosen this tradition of giving to the larger community through its concert series. In these contemporary moments of international and intercultural mingling, music allows each of us to gather and behold something beyond the distractions of modern life. Upholding and supporting musicians is an important aspect of the church's identity whose space is a welcoming sanctuary for both the artist and the audience to find peace, place and community.

Trinity Church presents an intimate venue in both size and sound, providing a unique acoustical experience that enhances your engagement in the full musical experience. The Martin Pasi Opus 17 tracker pipe organ is an additional asset, right for the space and has attracted several world-renowned organists over the past decade. Several area chamber groups have made Trinity Church their performance home and the space has attracted a high level of talent for ensemble and solo performance, evidence of the welcome of the church for talented musicians to share their musical experiences.

Please join us and subscribe to our 2022-2023 concerts. There will be 4 concerts in this series, with 20 concerts overall. Funds for Friends of Music are independent from the operating funds of the parish. If you also wish to become a Friend of Trinity with a donation please see information on page 11 or on our website at www.trinitysolebury.org.

Founded in 2000 as an intimate group of choral friends gathering in homes to share a love of music, Cantus Novus has grown to be an established musical presence in the Delaware Valley. Our musical focus can best be described as “roots and wings,” with programming spanning several centuries, honoring our “roots,” the rich a cappella choral tradition that springs from the motets of the Renaissance - while our “wings” present audiences with wide-ranging musical offerings from the best of contemporary composers.
